

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, FEBRUARY 23, 1884.

A very pleasant leap year party was given last night by the young ladies of the Bridgeport neighborhood at the residence of Mrs. Sallie Crockett, near this city. About fifteen couples were present, the young ladies furnishing the conveyances and going after their beaux, but leaving the boys to go home by themselves. A splendid repast was also furnished by the ladies.

The heavy wind of Tuesday afternoon and night did considerable damage in this locality. The livery stable of Messrs. Mahoney & Sacra, was unroofed and a portion of the rear wall blown in. The rear wall of the Kaltenbrun building, in the burnt district on St. Clair street, was blown down and one of the wings of the rooster on the Yeoman office was carried away. Grassy Springs Christian Church, in Woodford county, seven miles from this city, was also unroofed and the gable wall blown down.

The annual meeting of the Franklin County Bible Society will be held at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by Gov. Hindman and others. The aim of the society is to make the Holy Scriptures, without word or comment, accessible to all classes of people at the lowest rates. This work is done by sales at cost or less than cost to those who buy to give away, and by liberal grants to auxiliary societies and to missionary associations. Let every one interested in the spread of the Bible attend this meeting.

Lexington is having lots of fun over her city election—more in fact than we used to have in this city. There are two Democratic tickets in the field up there and one side is trying to get an amendment to the city charter passed by the Legislature, which will very materially assist their election. A special train brought down four hundred citizens of that burg Tuesday afternoon, who came for the purpose of instructing the Senate what to do with the amendment aforesaid, the House having already passed it. Every one of the visiting statesmen were labeled so that they would not get lost.

Owing to dissension in the South Benson Baptist Church, near Bridgeport, about twenty-five members have withdrawn and established a new church. Those who still remain in the old church have denied them the use of the house to worship in, and a law suit is now in progress. The seceders are among the best citizens of that portion of the county, but, as usual in such cases, very bitter feelings exist and the community is considerably divided on the questions involved. Pending the suit for the use of the house, the seceders have been granted the use of the Franklin Presbyterian Church building.

Death of Mr. Massie Franklin.

Another old citizen has passed away in the death of Mr. Massie Franklin, which occurred at the residence of his son, Mr. Walter Franklin, in South Frankfort, Sunday morning, at 7 o'clock. He was eighty-seven years of age, was born in Maryland, and removed to Henry county, in this State, when but a young man. He was a stonemason by trade, and came to this city in 1827 to work upon the foundation of the State House and has resided here ever since. For a number of years he and the late Isham Goins, an elder brother of Capt. San. Goin, ran a ferry from the mouth of Benson to a point just below Wakefield's mill. He continued to work at his trade until declining years forced him to lay aside his tools, having laid the foundation of the old Mansion House and other old buildings in this city. His funeral took place Monday morning from the residence of Mr. Walter Franklin, and the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large number of old friends and relatives.

Personals.

Miss Mary Ely is visiting the Misses Craig in Danville.
Mr. Will C. Dudley, of Chicago, is visiting his parents in this city.
Misses Fannie and Ella Reed visited friends at Benson the first of the week.
Mr. Walter Kelley and son, McClure, of Hopkinsville, spent Thursday and yesterday in this city visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. J. Brooks and Miss Lizzie Jett, of Richmond, spent several days the first of the week with relatives in this city.

Little Miss Eloise Hall, who has been visiting Miss Lyde Turner at the Ashland House, Lexington, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. H. S. Lyons, of Shelby county, and Mrs. Sallie Ogden, of Owensboro, spent several days the first of the week with the family of Mr. J. S. Marill, South Side.

Miss Eva Giltner, of Lincoln, Illinois, and Misses Anabel and Lizzie Giltner, of Eminence, will arrive in this city this morning and remain for some time the guests of their cousins, Mrs. Geo. A. Lewis and Miss Belle Giltner.

Switzer.

Mrs. Hendrixson is much better.
A. H. Holland has been quite sick the past week.

Miss Laura Bratton is visiting Miss Emma Stone this week.

On account of the high water Lee Jones has not been able to visit his church for some time.

Mr. Geo. Wigginton passed through our village Monday morning on his way home from Peak's Mill.

The storm of last Tuesday evening did great damage to fencing and old buildings in this part of the county.

E. R. Jones is building a new residence. He is going to live in style. It will be completed about the first of April if the weather will admit.

Rev. A. B. Cabiness, field editor of the Western Recorder, gave a splendid lecture Sunday last on his travels through China. It was the best lecture of the kind ever given at this place.

About one hundred and fifty people have left Franklin, Scott and Sweet Owen this winter and gone to upper counties to cultivate tobacco. This will surely raise the price of tobacco next fall.

Lucas and Forman have bought about two hundred thousand pounds of the tobacco in the country, which they are handling very nicely under the management of Mr. James Thompson, of Monterey.

Emigration is on a boom. Wagons can be seen every day traveling in the direction of Bourbon, Woodford, and other points of the bluegrass country. From what we can see one would imagine that whole country would be put out in tobacco this spring.

Miss Mary Merna has returned home from a visit to friends in Cumminsville, and she arrived in time to enjoy the splendid wedding reception given by her parents to Mr. Frank Driscoll, who married Miss Collins, a very worthy young lady from New Liberty, Ky., a short time ago.

ONCE A WEEK.

BORN.

In this city, on Sunday, February 17th, to Mr. Geo. W. Miller and wife, a son.

MARRIED.

In Georgetown, on Thursday, February 14th, 1884, by Rev. J. E. Wright, Mr. Spencer O. Wigginton, and Miss Lizzie F. Parker, all of Wigginton, this county.

Obituary.

DIED.—At her home in this city, February 9th, 1884, Mr. Elizabeth Wright, aged 55 years and 11 months. She leaves a husband and eleven (11) children, who deeply mourn their loss.

The deceased was raised in and near Nicholasville, Ky., being left entirely an orphan at twelve years. She then became a member of the Christian Church in Nicholasville, and has ever since been a faithful disciple. She has been a great sufferer for many years, yet her place was promptly filled in the house of God.

Her death was calm, resigned, triumphant. Perfectly willing to go, full of hope, she had no desire to stay a moment longer. She has passed away from this mortal life on earth to a blessed reward in the home beyond the skies. Our love we miss our dear, devoted mother and can only look to our Heavenly Father for support in this great trial and affliction. Her last words to her grief-stricken children were, "my dear children, don't grieve after me when you know I have suffered so long and have made such a sweet exchange. The good Lord's will is mine, follow in my foot steps, I am so happy, so happy." If she had an enemy they were never known to her. She was one of the tenderest and affectionate mothers and a good neighbor. We feel grief stricken and sorely afflicted, yet we take consolation in the blessed assurance that our loss is her eternal gain.

Notice To Contractors.

The undersigned will receive sealed bids until March 15, 1884, for the construction of a turnpike road from the south end of Shelby street, in South Frankfort, to the Louisville pike. Said road to be 16 feet metal, 18 foot grade. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of J. W. Bohannon. The Committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
